

MAR READINESS

EFFECTIVE MONITORING AND MORE

Entrima and ETR Advisory are collaborating to deliver a 1-day class to support readiness for the Market Abuse Regulation (MAR), which applies from 3rd July. The workshop will focus on the energy and commodities sector and cover the key rule elements, including approaches to achieving “effective monitoring”, required for most by MAR and recommended for REMIT. This time the workshop will be held in London on 11th July 2016, after an extremely successful identical session in June.

CONTENT

During the workshop the following topics & themes are covered in-depth:

- Section 1: Introduction
 - MAR overview
 - REMIT’s anti abuse measures
- Section 2: MAR and REMIT Rules
 - Scope – What is covered by MAR?
 - Interaction with MiFID II
 - Looking at the rules
 - How does MAR apply to emissions?
 - Inside information – What is it and how does one handle it?
- Section 3: Effective Monitoring
 - What do the rules say?
 - Key monitoring elements:
 - Organisation
 - Process
 - Technology
 - Surveillance system options
 - Detecting patterns of possible abuse
 - Introducing an effective capability in stages
- Section 4: Case studies
 - Looking at historic abuse cases
- Section 5: Moving forward
 - Preparing for 3rd July
 - In the medium term

WORLD-CLASS KNOWLEDGE CENTRE

LONDON – 11 JULY

The workshop is held in London (UK) on Monday 11 July 2016.

- Venue:
 - Nearby Paddington Station
 - London
 - United Kingdom
- Schedule:
 - From 09:30am. until 16:00hrs.
- Price:
 - GBP 890.-, including lunch & exclusive of VAT.

TUTOR AVIV HANDLER

Delegates can profit from the bundled forces of two unique and specialized organisations and the expertise and experience of the following specialist:

- Aviv Handler (ETR Advisory), workshop leader

SIGN UP REGISTRATION

In order to sign up send an email to info@entrима.org. Please mention your name, company and telephone number, plus "London - MAR - 11 July".

IN-COMPANY TAILOR-MADE PROGRAMME

This workshop is delivered by means of open enrolment, but can also be held in-company. In-house training allows for tailoring of the content, to suit your specific desires.

EDUCATION FOR PROFESSIONALS